Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to call to the attention of the House of Representatives the honor being accorded to John Kebles by the Pennsylvania Credit Union League, and I wish him and his family all the best.

RECOGNIZING THE PRINCE WILLIAM CHAMBER OF COMMERCE 2003 LIFESAVING VALOR AWARD RECIPIENTS

HON. TOM DAVIS

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 31, 2003

Mr. TOM DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, every year, the Prince William County Chamber of Commerce recognizes individuals who have courageously demonstrated selfless dedication to public safety. These outstanding men and women have played an important role in building a better community. This hard work and determination has earned several citizens of Prince William County the highest honor bestowed upon county public safety officials—The Lifesaving Valor Award.

The Lifesaving Award is awarded to public safety officials in recognition of acts taken in a life-threatening situation in which an individual's life is in risk, either medically or physically. It is with great honor that I enter into the record the names of the 2003 Lifesaving Award recipients. OWL Volunteer Fire Department: Lt. James Dart; Prince William County Police Department: MPO W.A. Lawrence; MPO G.W. Motley; MPO K.A. Muehlauser; Arlington County Sheriff's Department: Deputy J. O'Keefe; USMC: Sergeant Daniel P. O'Mahoney. The service they provide to the community is tremendous and is deserving of such acclaim.

Mr. Speaker, in closing, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the men and women who serve Prince William County. The events of September 11th served as a reminder of the sacrifices our emergency service workers make for us every day. Their constant efforts on behalf of Prince William County citizens are paramount to preserving security, law, and order throughout our neighborhoods; and their individual and collective acts of heroism deserve our highest praise. I ask that my colleagues join me in congratulating these outstanding individuals.

SECURING BLESSINGS OF PROVIDENCE FOR PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES AND OUR ARMED FORCES

SPEECH OF

HON. TODD TIAHRT

OF KANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 26, 2003

Mr. TIAHRT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of H. Res. 153 and ask my colleagues to join me. This resolution declares the sense of Congress that the President of the United States should designate a national day of prayer, fasting and humility. At a time when many of our young men and women are engaged in a global war on terrorism and a campaign to disarm the Iraqi regime, it is entirely appropriate we should humble ourselves before Almighty God.

Throughout American history, both the Congress and the President have called on the American people to acknowledge the Providence of God and to seek his divine wisdom. We have witnessed the benefits of national prayer and fasting in times past, and we are today asking the President to once again proclaim such a day. While the challenges we face in the 21st Century are new, we know the root causes of these difficulties are much the same as they have always been.

It is with the hope that good will ultimately triumph that we are asking for all people to collectively acknowledge God and seek guidance, strength and resolve through prayer and fasting.

Many families all across this great nation are praying for a quick resolve to the conflict in Iraq. It is fitting that we as a nation join with them in solidarity during this time of war and chaos.

As we hear new reports of those killed or missing in action, our hearts go out to the children and families of these brave men and women fighting overseas. Pfc. Patrick Miller, a constituent of mine, is among those Americans being held captive in Iraq. We are once again realizing the high cost of war and what it means to defend liberty.

In recent years I think most Americans have been made more aware of just how fragile peace can be, both at home and abroad. America and the world have witnessed the destruction of innocent life and the violation of universal human rights by brutal men. In a time when the President and other leaders are deciding how to respond to these situations, it is vitally important we recognize a higher power than ourselves.

Our Founding Fathers understood the necessity of seeking guidance from God, and today we are no less in need of that same Divine Counsel.

During the Civil War Abraham Lincoln was asked if God was on his side. His reply was, "Sir, my concern is not whether God is on my side. My great concern is to be on God's side."

In the same spirit of humility Abraham Lincoln exhibited during one of our nation's darkest hours, we are asking the President to call for a national day of prayer, humility and fasting.

As we examine ourselves before God, we will surely be shown our own failings and will learn how we can do better in our actions. I am confident that as in times past, God will once again provide assistance to our country in our time of need.

In 1787 Benjamin Franklin said, "We need God as our friend not our enemy. We need him to be our ally not our adversary. We need to make sure that we keep God's concurring aid."

As Mr. Franklin wisely affirmed our need for God more than two centuries ago, once again we need to join together as a country in asking for the "aid" of the Almighty.

KEEPING CHILDREN AND FAMILIES SAFE ACT OF 2003

SPEECH OF

HON. ALCEE L. HASTINGS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 26, 2003

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I strongly support this bill. It provides states with Federal funds to train caseworkers in child protective service systems, an initiative that the State of Florida desperately needs.

Florida's Department of Children and Families has an abysmal record of monitoring the children entrusted to its care, and I am hopeful that an infusion of Federal funds, aimed at increasing both training and oversight of social workers, will alleviate this disgrace.

I am sure you will recall the story of 5-year-old Rilya Wilson, the young Florida child whose whereabouts are still unknown. Eight months after her disappearance, her social worker was still filing reports indicating that she had routinely conducted home visits and that the child was safe and well cared for.

Regrettably, investigations into Florida's child welfare system revealed that this was not an isolated case. Last September, in response to public outcry over the Rilya Wilson incident, Governor Bush replaced the secretary of Florida's Department of Children and Families.

He also created a governor's task force in an attempt to locate an additional 393 children missing from Florida's child welfare system.

After a 15-week effort, the Governor described the results "a success" even though only one-fourth of the 393 missing children had been located, and the task force was disbanded.

I am hopeful that an infusion of Federal funds, specifically geared towards training caseworkers, will improve the child welfare system in the State of Florida and the rest of the Nation.
